FORSYTH - The Georgia Department of Corrections will hold a job fair from 9 a.m. to 2 p.m. today at the historic train depot at 126 E. Johnston St.

In 2008, the corrections department plans to begin moving its state headquarters to the former Tift College campus, which would bring about 400 jobs to Forsyth. Today's job fair is for positions now open throughout the state.

Positions being recruited include corrections officers, probation officers, counselors, food service staff, maintenance staff and job candidates who are fluent in Spanish.

The Forsyth job fair will allow residents in surrounding communities to meet Department of Corrections recruiters and members of its senior management team.
